Students, Alumni, and Faculty Tear Up the Course

In early August, on the challenging Branch River Golf & Tennis course, several Roncalli students, alumni, and faculty showed off their skills during the Manitowoc County Men's Amateur Golf Tournament. Travis Ruzek, a 2010 graduate, trailed the leader by 5 strokes coming into the last day but fired an eagle on the 18th hole for a score of one over par 73 to win the tournament by one stroke. Jimmy Albright, who will be a senior this coming school year, and is a member of the Roncalli golf team, finished two strokes behind Ruzek. In the A Flight, Roncalli golf coach and alumni, John Haug (Class of '75) was the winner. And in B Flight, Roncalli principal, Tim Olson took 2nd place. It was a great showing for the Roncalli community. For more information on the tournament, check out the article at Wisconsin Outdoor Fun.
